

PETER BARONOFF

CEO and Managing Director, KPC Global Management

KPC Global Healthcare

Dr. Kali Chaudhuri today announced that Peter Baronoff is Managing Director of KPC Global Management and CEO of Hemet and Menifee hospitals. In making the announcement, Dr. Chaudhuri stated, "We are excited to have an experienced healthcare leader in Peter Baronoff joining KPC. Peter brings approximately three decades of healthcare experience. We look forward to his impact in guiding our future." Baronoff was Founder and CEO of Promise Healthcare and Success Healthcare. Baronoff directed the activities of over 20 hospitals in nine states until announcing his retirement earlier this year.

Peter Baronoff stated, "I am excited to be joining the KPC team, and look forward to assisting in continuing to build the KPC Healthcare System. KPC's seven hospitals, physician groups, skilled nursing facilities, and other assets bring a unique continuum to healthcare. We believe that there is huge growth potential as we look to expand."

Mr. Baronoff has served in a variety of capacities during his 30-year healthcare career. They include serving as a three-term President of the Acute Long-Term Hospital Association Board of Directors, and being involved with numerous Federal and State Government healthcare issues. Mr. Baronoff has been an active member of his community, serving as a two-term elected member of the City Council, as well as Deputy Mayor. Mr. Baronoff has been an active member of the Rotary Club as well as numerous community organizations. Mr. Baronoff was selected and inducted into the Boy Scouts Court of Honor. Baronoff has a Masters of Health Administration from Florida Atlantic University. Peter and his wife, Carmel, have four children ages 31, 29, 29, and 25. Mr. Baronoff has relocated to Riverside County.
